LITTLE ROACHES

Verwondering blijft Wonder remains

Synopsis

*I was once a tree, the stool creaked.
And I the sea, spoke the drop.*

These and more aphorisms for everyday life.

Theo Olthuis is a master of making aphorisms. Little wisdoms about everyday life and thoughts to dream about for a long time to come. Previously appeared 'With your head in the clouds'. For this second Little roach of his hand, we bundled aphorisms about our hectic existence. For a little moment of peace.

Merijn Jansen made a linocut for each text that leaves plenty of room for your own reflections.
