2021

SOLAR PLANNER

2020 was a punch in the face, let's say it. The intensity of change and transformation made it one of the hardest and weirdest years ever. We came through it and now we have a brand new year full of possibilities waiting for us. This time is sure to say that that the new year will be better than the previous one, it's pretty unlikely that something similar in magnitude to what we just left behind could happen.

Modern Witch 2020 planner invited you to benefit from the available Moon energy, approach your inner world, the intimate, the unconscious and what you call home. Is it a coincidence that we've spent most of the year stucked at home? Well, they call me a witch for a reason: sometimes i foresee things.

Intuition is an essential tool. Connecting with yours is going to be useful to carry out all the projects you undertake: that's why in 2021 we will continue training it.

Once we catch up on everything related to Moon energy, my invitation for this new year is to extend it to Solar energy: identity, self consciousness, personal brightness and how we show ourselves to the world. Once we get to know ourselves, we can project our energy and personality to the world.

BRUJA
MODERNA

We will focus our energy to work with it according to the movement of the Sun through the zodiac signs. Everything we learned about the moon last year will remain present as we add new knowledge and activities related to the Solar energy.

Every time the sun enters a new zodiac sign, it opens a season to live experiences linked to that energy. The whole planet shares the vibration on this frequency, to which you can consciously join. In order to harness the power of zodiac sign changes, every month we'll do rituals aligned with the energy of the sun.

To boost the rituals and go further into the archetypes of the zodiac signs, we will appeal to the energy of my great ally the tarot.

Welcome to the 2021 Modern Witch Solar Planner.
A whole new cycle full of light to walk through together.

With love,

@kadalia

2021 SYMBOLOGY ACCORDING TO THE TAROT

Numerical reduction is one of the wonderful tarot tools. It consists simply of adding the numbers of the cards in a reading, until we obtain a number equal to or less than 21 in order to associate it with a major arcana. In this case we are going to apply this exercise to the number of the upcoming year, to observe what astrological energy it brings within its matrix.

We'll do the process in two different ways: We can deduce that 2021 is made up of numbers 20 and 21; Or we can add all the involved numbers that make up the year and we reduce it by doing the following operation: $2 + 0 + 2 + 1 = 5$.

We can then interpret two readings: one composed by major arcana 20 and 21, The Judgment and The World, and another composed only of number 5, The Pope.

FIRST READING

V · THE POPE

If we interpret the energy of the year by reading card number 5, we can say that it will be a year full of faith and messages linked to encourage us to give a step into an unknown world. This major arcana invites us to build bridges beyond our comfort zone. We don't know where those new paths go, we only know that the place where we are is no longer good for us and we have to move. The only certainty we have, as indicated by the pope's hand in the card, is that the movement will be forward and with a divine blessing.

The Pope invites us to trust what happens to us and to open ourselves to a new reality. This new paradigm has much more to do with something existential and internal than with something material: it is a new reality built on faith.

SECOND READING

XX · THE JUDGEMENT & XXI · THE WORLD

The Judgment is the energy that we worked in depth during 2020. Revelations, calls for attention, emergencies and endings were very frequent throughout the cycle.

The image of this major arcana is precisely the final judgment, an invitation to observe what that irresistible call of divinity consists of. We see this energy again during this new period to continue reflecting on intuition, new invitations to become aware and spiritual rebirths.

Card number 21, The World, is the perfect closing of a stage. The maximum expression of something, the completeness, the beauty of the end. This two major arcana together in one reading show the perfect flow of evolution, where we become aware of what we must attend to then close the cycle. We may not be ready, but the perfect closing of a great process is in plain sight and there is nothing that can be done to change it.

Considering this symbology, it is possible that this year's energy will bring us deep and existential analysis that invite us to put an end to what we were leaving unattended, close unfinished cycles and move towards new things. 2021 is a year with a lot of spiritual content, since 20 and 21 are the last two cards in the path of the major arcana and so both call us to complete the adventure.

THE ENERGY OF THE 12 ZODIAC SIGNS

First things first: Zodiac signs are energies, not personalities. Their vibration is not necessarily linked to humans, their energy can be reflected in a project, an object, a color or an attitude.

In the following pages we will review the 12 zodiac energies so you have a big picture of what we are going to work on this year. Keep in mind that when I mention each of the zodiac energies I'm not specifically talking about a person born under that sun sign; although it is true that an Arian will have arian characteristics, but this energy is not reserved only for them.

Each sign has a ruling planet (we'll talk about that also) and an element that represents it. The signs related to fire are active and desiring, earth signs are materializers and realistic, the water signs are sensitive and subjective and air signs are communicative and bonding.

ARIES

REGENT PLANET: Mars

ELEMENT: Fire

This sign represents the power of the beginning, it is related to facing new challenges, taking control of a situation, acting independently and finding motivation. Aries energy bursts forth with incomparable vitality to take the first step on the long zodiac road. Its main characteristic is perception born from the concept of the individual. Its opposite complementary is the sign of Libra, linked with the idea of "the others".

GEMINI

REGENT PLANET: Mercury

ELEMENT: Air

It's the sign of communication and connection. Its gift is to establish connections between what is apparently different. It is a fun, agile and very dynamic energy, which is always opening new doors and building bridges. Its complementary opposite is Sagittarius, which synthesizes and directs energy in a specific direction.

TAURUS

REGENT PLANET: Venus

ELEMENT: Earth

Represented by the bull, Taurus energy is linked to materialization, stability and nature. Everything that is concrete and pleasant, in deep connection with the vital pulse, is in relation to this vibration. Its complementary opposite is Scorpio, which represents death, transformation, constant change and liberation.

CANCER

REGENT PLANET: Moon

ELEMENT: Water

It's the energy of nourishment and care. Its job is to protect in privacy what can be invaded or attacked from the outside, and for that it's a closing energy. This vibration is linked with family, home and food. Archetypally it represents the concept of motherhood. Its complementary opposite is Capricorn, related to parental energy, responsibility and rules.

Neither the sun nor the moon are planets: they are luminaries.
In astrology, however, they are considered to be planets.

· THE SUN ·

REGENT OF: Leo

The Sun's energy is related to personal brightness, the power of the Self and the possibility of bringing light to what needs to become visible. Where the sun is, there is awareness. It is the most important planet in the entire birth chart and it is why you say "I'm a Libra" if the Sun was on Libra on the moment of your birth: Its location determines the most important planetary position of your chart.

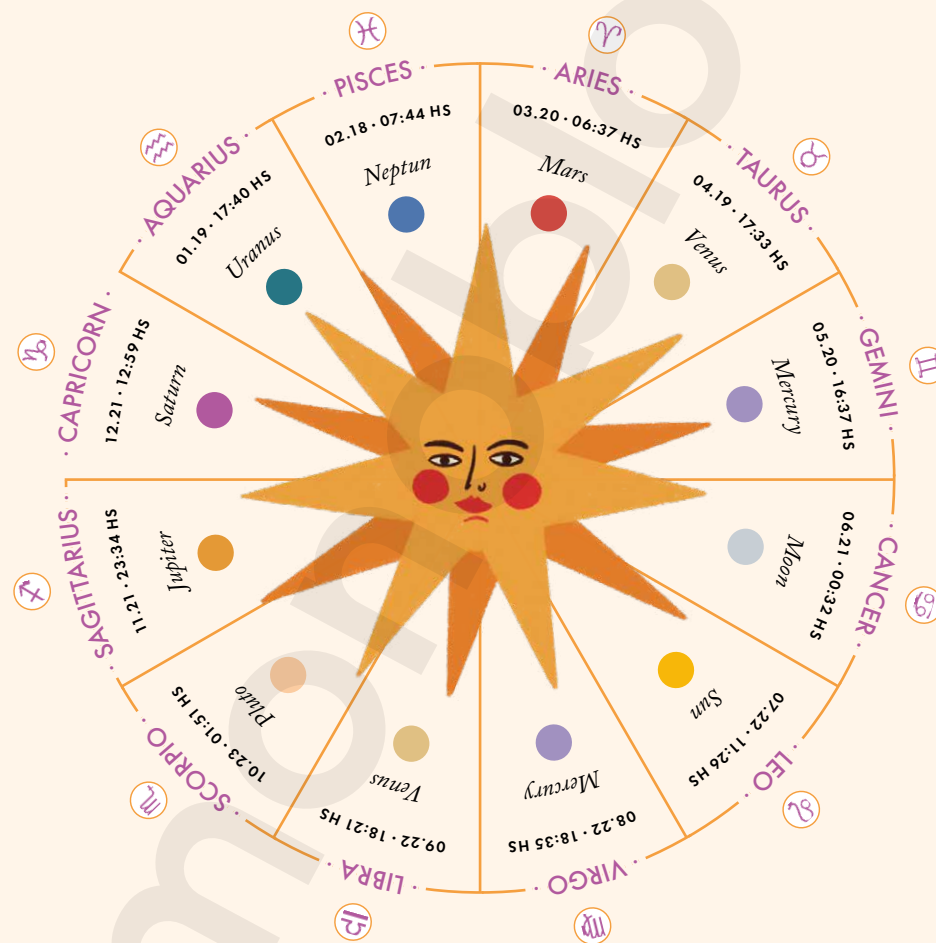

· THE MOON ·

REGENT OF: Cancer

The Moon is related to the hidden, that which is not yet revealed. It tells us about the inner world, the intimate and what we call home. It influences our unconscious, our emotions and like water itself, it strains through our gaps to fill us with its power, without us realizing it.

ASTROLOGICAL GLOSSARY

MODERN WITCH

I introduce you to @astromostra, who will accompany us this year with all the astrological data.

Hello friends! AstroMostra here in the stars, visiting the magical universe of Modern Witch. I want to make some observations and give some mini-tips about the astrological transits that are going to be marked on the planner, so you can benefit from their energy.

Cosmic New Year: When the Sun enters Aries the autumn equinox begins and so a new cycle of the wheel of the zodiac. This moment is of immense importance to the drive of our efforts throughout the year. Each solstice and each equinox (the four "gates" of the year) are radical and vigorous moments for the necessary alliances with others, leadership in your goals and initiative towards change.

Blue Moon: When we have two full moons in the same sign during the same astrological month, we call the second one Blue Moon. It is a rare but very intense phenomenon, since it reinforces the energy of the dialogue between the sun and the moon that month. This year it happens in August.

By the apparent position of the planets from our point of view, in certain periods it seems that some of them "move backwards". That process known as retrogradation is significant on planets like Mercury, Venus and Mars.

Mercury Retrograde: Mercury Retrograde has an established date of beginning and all sorts of ways to determine how and when it ends according to different traditions. What we need to know is that it brings difficulties and challenges in communication and agreements. Therefore, there are frequent drawbacks in the technology we use to communicate and misunderstandings are common (what challenges our agreements). We must review and repair. It's good to pay extra attention to mistakes due to negligence and to be a bit more patient facing difficulties, as well as paying special attention to issues from the past that are revived during this period. You should double-check your expenses, commitments and schedule during this time. Mercury retrograde is not limited to the day it begins and the day it ends: it brings interference up to 72 hours before and after retrogradation.

Venus Retrograde: Venus becomes retrograde once every 18 to 20 months and that process lasts around 40 to 43 days. Venus rules harmony, union and your strategies regarding relations. Through Venus you know, feel, perceive and express desire and the erotic in you bonds, in your artistic expression and in how you see yourself. Venus is personal and social, it is how you open yourself to others and your deepest intimacy. While Venus is retrograde it's a time to befriend the mirror and accept your scars. The past is examined, and it is common to find the right words for emotions that we did not fully understand before. It is recommended to avoid commitments or weddings, cosmetic surgeries, radical changes in your appearance, and also premieres and releases of any kind. It is advisable to ask for forgiveness and have "that" talk that we owe ourselves. It is a moment of deep personal re-design, self-care and exploitation of your erotic capital.

Hopefully this little glossary of astrological terminology will be useful!
Don't forget that the stars dispose, but do not force.

XOXO

WE WELCOME THE SUN INTO

AQUARIUS

01.19–02.17

ALLIES ACCORDING TO THE TAROT

XVI • THE TOWER

When the Sun enters the Aquarian energy we welcome the vibration of the future. Almost like telepathy, thoughts begin to fly through the air connecting us with each other without the need for words. We love Aquarius because it shows us the existence of energy, beyond physical matter.

The ally of Aquarian energy in the tarot is The Tower. This archetype breaks from the established in an unexpected way. Lightning energy is one of the forms of Aquarius and in this card we can clearly see it coming from the higher planes to destroy everything that was built. The lightning bolt directly hits the tower that is the card's main figure, causing the debris of everything that was to fly through the air. The positive thing about this card is that from this transformation there is a very important release of energy.

In the Aquarius season we set out to try new things, to allow ourselves a new connection to technology and to think differently. This vibration is ideal for welcoming the unexpected and encouraging us to let the new come into our lives like a shooting star. Perhaps it may seem like a fickle energy, but if we relax and surrender we will realize that there is nothing else possible but to embrace uncertainty. Aquarius teaches us to vibrate like this, nonchalantly.

In this ritual of welcoming the sun to Aquarius we will activate the telepathic force and exercise the muscle of your intuition.

1. Lit the blue candle placing it on the plate. This will connect you to your third eye and tune into the energy of Aquarius. Put The Tower card next to the candle (or a piece of paper with the name of this major arcana).
2. With the black marker draw a circle on a sticky note, a triangle on another, and a square on another. Turn them over, mix them so you don't know which one is which, and leave them face down.
3. Do a little meditation to root yourself and connect with your intuition. You can help yourself by observing the flame of the blue candle.
4. Beyond the intention of simply guessing, try to see what is behind each paper and then turn them over, one by one.
5. Record the results in your notebook.
6. You can repeat this exercise several times and do it several days in a row. See if your intuition improves with practice.

WE WELCOME THE SUN INTO

PISCES

18.02–19.03

ALLIES ACCORDING TO THE TAROT

X · THE WHEEL OF FORTUNE & XXI · THE WORLD

The Sun enters the last sign of the zodiac closing a cycle that started long ago. When we begin to vibrate the energy of Pisces we find ourselves facing the only possibility that endings offer us: to dilute ourselves in the whole and to give rise to the new.

Its tarot allies are The Wheel of Fortune and The World, because they are the ones that end cycles and close processes. The Wheel speaks of an energy that invites to process endings and suggests to set aside the repetition of errors. The World tells us of a process that reaches its maximum expression and closes perfectly, giving birth to a brand new start in a different mindset.

In the Pisces season we allow ourselves to dream, believe and be excited. Communication with others happens through telepathy and empathy, that which we can transmit with sensations. It is a time for romance and to feel one with the whole. Pisces is the era of softness, it is beautiful to have the courage to embrace it.
