

#COOKING #FAMILYRECIPES #TRADITION #CULTURE

RECIPES IN A SCRAPBOOK BY SOFÍA PACHANO

What delicious secrets are hidden in those little pieces of paper forgotten in the drawers of so many kitchens around the world?

Sofía Pachano solves this mystery in an emotional journalistic rescue work that begins in her grandmother's house and continues in the intimacy of 17 family kitchens.

The result is an invitation to rediscover the ingredients that spice up our stories, and to cook and share new traditions.

Learn how to cook typical dishes from Arab, Armenian, British, Chinese, Korean, Creole, Spanish, French, Italian, Japanese, Jewish, Paraguayan, Peruvian and Venezuelan cuisine.

- More than 90 classic recipes with clear instructions and pictures
- 11 family recipes from renowned Chefs from Latin America

Features

Book size: 240mm(H) x 190mm(W) (Portrait)

Cover: Hard cover. Coated paper wraps 2mm greyboard, 4C/0C print, matte varnish and imprint in title.

Pages: 256 Pages, 120gsm Matt art paper. 4C print on double sides.

Sewn Bound, square back.

Endsheet: 140gsm woodfree paper, 2C/2C print.

Number of words: +35400

Copies sold: +1500

About The Author: Sofía Pachano

Sofía Pachano (Buenos Aires, 1988) is a cook, trained as a Gastronomic Professional at the Instituto de Gastronomía Argentino (IAG).

Finalist of the first edition of "Masterchef Celebrity Argentina" in 2020 and winner of the 2022 edition.

Since 2016 she develops the project called "Sofi in...," broadcasted by Tastemade, in which she visits mythical restaurants in different cities.

In 2021 she carried out this emotional research that became her first book, where she seeks to rescue through her expert eye the value of the culinary legacy of our families.

Follow her

Instagram @sofipachano 706K

web: <https://recetasenpapelitos.com.ar/>